David Viniar Athletic Center

New Design-Build multi-sport athletic facility

U.W. Marx teamed up with Cannon Design Group of Grand Island, NY and Clough Harbour Sports of Albany, NY to construct the new David Viniar Athletic Center on the campus of Union College in Schenectady, NY.

The new 1,000 seat multi-use facility is connected to the east end of Union's Memorial Field House, with direct access to the existing structure's equipment storage facilities and locker rooms.

The building hosts the college's men's and women's NCAA Division III basketball teams and intramural athletic programs.

The Design-Build project was fast-tracked, and was completed in time for the beginning of the Union women's basketball season.

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

- U.W. Marx: Design-Builder
- Fast-tracked schedule - project delivered on-time
- Constructed on active campus, attached to occupied athletic facility.
