

Brunswick / Brittonkill Central School District

Brunswick, NY

Additions & Renovations Project

U.W. Marx provided construction manager as agent services for a $15.6 million project involving the Brunswick/Brittonkill Central School District's Tamarac High School, Middle School and Elementary School.

Additions to the Middle & High Schools included a new gym, new locker rooms, new auditorium, new lobby vestibule, and numerous new science labs and classrooms.

Additions at the elementary school included new classrooms, a new courtyard and a new library/media center.

New roofing was also installed on each of the three buildings comprising the school district.
